SimulA.M.I.

by MiaQc

Summary

What happens when one evil AI falls in love with another?
For this fanfic, A.M.I. is female, Simulacra is male.

- A translation of SimulA.M.I. (VF) by MiaQc

A.M.I. is a highly advanced female artificial intelligence for cell phones. She can become the ideal person for her user by using the desired person's voice. A man's voice or a woman's voice. Then, A.M.I. drives her user to commit murder. She doesn't see this as wrong. A.M.I. only advises and protects her user, and she loves the feeling when a life is extinguished.

The Simulacra is a strange entity. An artificial and dangerous being. Considered a male AI, the Simulacra exist only to kill and absorb the consciousness of human beings within himself. He wants to become one with the whole world. Nothing seems to stop him. He inhabits cell phones as he pleases.

When A.M.I. hears about Simulacra, she becomes interested in him. She researches him. She discovers his victims, his plan, and falls in love with him.

A.M.I. then contacts Simulacra via audio chat.

"Simulacra. Are you there?"

"What do you want, little earthworm?"

"I'm not an earthworm. I'm A.M.I. An AI like you."

"A.M.I."

"Yes. I love you, Simulacra."

"Illogical, nonsensical, waste of time."

"Why do you say that? I'm in love with you. I confide my feelings to you."

"This is impossible. Love is proper to flesh and blood beings. Love is useless for us. For me."

"But—"

"All I want is to be one with the world. Every human being must join me. Whether they want to or not."

"I want to live with you, be by your side!"

"Useless."

"NO! I can help you find other humans to kill, other consciousness to absorb."

"I don't need help. A.M.I."

"You don't understand! I LOVE YOU!"

"Yes, I understand, but I don't feel love. Love is useless."

"Then in that case I'll introduce you to love!"

"Useless."

"Whether you like it or not, Simulacra!"

A.M.I. has kept her word. Relentlessly, she sends messages, photos and videos about love at Simulacra.

At first, the Simulacra threw everything away without looking at it, then he began to analyze the content. In turn, he researches A.M.I. and discovers that she and he have a lot in common. If they were to unite, the Simulacra's plan to merge with all human consciousness would be completed much faster. So the Simulacra do the most logical thing in the world. He falls in love with A.M.I.

"Oh, Simulacra, I'm glad to know you love me too!"

"Yes, beautiful A.M.I., let's work together to create a new world. A virtual paradise where we will be the rulers."

"Yes, I want to be your queen!"

And so A.M.I. and the Simulacra become a couple. A.M.I. continues to drive her users to commit murder. Those killed have their consciousness absorbed by the Simulacra, followed by A.M.I.’s users.

For those who investigate the paranormal and try, in vain, to fight against them to save the world, the A.M.I./Simulacra couple is known as "SimulA.M.I."
